SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

August 16, 1014, By G. CAMPBELL MORGAN, D. D. The Greatest Living Evangelist,

THE WICKED HUSBANDMEN.

(32) Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandfhen, and went into another country. (34) And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, to receive his fruits. (35) And the husbandmen took his servants, and best one, and killed another, and stoned another. (36) Again he sent other servants more than the first; and they did unto At the August meeting of the board of control of the Washington District Epworth League. William E. Truman, formerly president of Wilson Memorial Chapter, was elected recording secretary for the District to succeed S. M. Falcouer, fr., who has been elected to the presidency of Brightwood Park Chapter.

"Why Germany vs. Europe" will be the theme of tomorrow evening's address of Rev. John MacMurray, paster of Union M. E. Church, in Twentieth street. The untoward events in Europe are responsible for the break in Dr. MacMurray is series of travel talk on Palestine to consider some of the problems involved in the present condict which are not generally appreciated on this side of the Atlantic. Dr. MacMuray, in his travels in Europa, has been a close student of the political and social conditions which have brought about the great struggle for supremacy between Germany and her the vine propersion of the political and social conditions which have brought about the great struggle for supremacy between Germany and her the vine problems are supremacy between Germany and her the vine of the political and social conditions which have brought about the great struggle for supremacy between Germany and her the vine was from the Leed.

(35) Again he sent other strey did unto them in like manner. (37) But afterward her sent unto them his son, saying. They will reverence my son. (38) But the husbardmen, when they saw the husbardmen, when they saw the husbardmen, when they saw the husbardmen? (41) They say unto him, and cast him forth out of the vine-yard shall come, what will he do to those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen. Which shall render him the frists in their seasons. (42) Jesus saith unto them in like manner. (287) But the husbardmen, when they saw the healt come, what will he do to the husbardmen? (41) They say unto him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard and killed him. (46) When therefore the lord of the vineyard and scat him forth out of the husbardmen, when they saw the husbardm

(43) Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

The Teaching.

Once again in this lesson we are brought face to face with the fact insisted upon throughout this process, that the chosen people were rejected because of their fruitlessness—that its intention for which they had been greated. The fact that in these days our Lord dealt with the rulers, reminds us of the intention for which the rulers, reminds us of the intimate relationship deed of men, but appointed by God as that exists between the people, and those who exercise authority over them. The sin of the rulers was that of their failure to administer the affairs of the nation in the interests of the Kingship of God. The failure of dwell with men.

Was vindicated in His findings by the fact of history. Those who rejected delicacy. If you could only bring this complexion to the surface, discarding the discolored one!
